University-Employed Postdoctoral Admission

The basic postdoctoral admission requirements are as follows:
1) Aged under 33 and in good health;2) Receiving PhD degree in 3 years. Or providing a letter of approval for doctoral degree conferral (not only just having passed the doctorate defense). 3) Able to guarantee the consecutive research work in CUMT exclusively for no less than 21 months. 4) The ones who graduates from CUMT should change the first-level discipline and supervisor.

If the proposed appointee is currently in China, they shall undergo a medical checkup at the local International Travel Health Care Center. If they are currently overseas, they shall undergo a medical checkup after entering China.

I Postdoctoral Application

- 1.Individual Application
- 2.Recommended by Prospective Institution
- 3. Public Notice of Proposed Postdoctoral Researchers

II Applying for Work Permit, VISA and Resident Permit

- 1. Signing Prospective Employment Contract
- 2. Medical Checkup
- 3. Applying for a Foreigner's Work Permit in China
- 4. Applying for VISA to China
- 5. Applying for Resident Permit

III Obtaining Certificate of Post-doctoral Researcher Registration

- 1. Submitting an Entry Application on the China Postdoctoral Online Office System
- 2. Obtaining Certificate of Post-doctoral Researcher Registration after Review and Approval

Only for proposed appointees entering the territory of China

IV On-boarding and Registration

Registration and Signing a Formal Employment Contract

Doctoral Supervisors of the Post-doctoral Research Stations:
https://hr.cumt.edu.cn/info/1037/4559.htm

Contact Information of Colleges and Research Institutions:

https://hr.cumt.edu.cn/info/1037/4558.htm